

Mario Mucha

Mario Mucha was appointed Chief Operating Officer (COO) of Geistlich Pharma AG in February 2009. Prior to this he was serving in various functions at Organon International, a Dutch pharmaceutical company and global leader in specialised gynaecological areas, treatment of depression and muscle relaxation in surgery.

He spent 20 years at Organon and served as Medical Director in Switzerland, International Product Manager in headquarters in The Netherlands and as local General Manager in various countries. He was exposed to the strategic management of a foundation in female healthcare.

He began his professional career in the pharmaceutical company Taeschner in Germany. Mr. Mucha holds a degree as pharmacist from the University in Munich, Germany and followed numerous development programmes a.o. at INSEAD.